SOCIALISM, COMMUNISM, AND AMERICAN POLITICS

with Professor Bill Smaldone

What is Socialism? What is Communism? How are they relevant to American politics at this crucial moment in our history?

Bill Smaldone, Professor of History at Willamette University and former Salem City Councilor, will examine the history of the stark differences between socialism and communism and how they are relevant to our current policies.

Join us in the Anderson Rooms at the Salem Library on September 19! This promises to be a very interesting, important talk.
